EVERY NIGHT
WITH ONE TV AND PHONES

It is a BAR. It is a PARTY. Host your way: your RULES, your VOICE, your PACE. On a dead Monday, Barty Central runs itself.

Want more power? Put a HUMAN on the MIC and run the room like a show. Same screen. Same teams. More SHOWTIME.

THE HOST ACROSS TOWN

Scan it. Watch the night unfold, then picture your own room packed.

YOUR WHOLE LINEUP. AT A GLANCE.

Six proof pages, no filler. Hover a tile on the web brochure, open the page, or scan the cover for the live reel.

A REAL TUESDAY. START TO CLOSE.

DEAD NIGHT IN. PACKED NIGHT OUT.

The whole night is a neon timeline, and the setup stays boring in the best possible way.

TV ON
The first question is already on the wall — no cart to wheel in, no cable to chase.

PHONE BUZZER
Which cocktail is built from tequila, lime, and style wit?

TABLES SCAN IN
Every team joins on a phone. Their phone is the buzzer all night.

A REAL NIGHT

PODIUM HITS
The room gets a real finish instead of a shing and a spreadsheet.

THEY POST IT
The winning team sends a scoreboard with your bar.

SEE IT BEFORE YOU BUY IT.
The reel runs this exact sequence: TV question, phones, switch, podium, share card — two minutes flat.

PLAY THE 2-MINUTE REEL

NEVER THE SAME NIGHT TWICE

ONE HERO GAME. A WHOLE ARCADE BEHIND IT.

Trivia is the doorway. Once the room is in, swap modes without losing teams, scores, or the vibe.

NEON: BAR TRIVIA

What spirit is the base of a classic Old Fashioned?

FAST TRIVIA, BUZZER PHONES, AND ROUNDS THAT FEEL BUILT FOR THE ROOM.

Start with the game every table already understands. Then switch modes before the room gets tired: wagers, bingo cards, bluff rounds, word boards, and a real podium finish.

ONE SCREEN CAN PAY FOR ITSELF.

A local sponsor gets the side-between rounds. Winning teams post the scoreboard with your bar name attached. Your screen becomes the game, the ad spot, and the memory people carry home.

STOP STACKING VENDORS ON THE SAME TELEVISION.

One branded surface is easier to run, easier to sell, and easier for the room to understand.

ZERO FRICTION

NO LAPTOP. NO CABLE. NO CLIPBOARD.

Turn on the TV, open the lobby, and run the night from behind the bar. Players already know what to do.
